

ABC

Head Start Society

Get Involved

In addition to our core funding, donations from individuals and corporations are critical to our ability to continue providing the breadth and quality of services that best help children and families achieve success. Support, in the form of donations helps make our Christmas projects, literacy backpacks and food and bus voucher programs possible and successful.